

ENERGY STAR® Ceiling Fan Partner and Industry Meeting

Six months following their introduction onto the marketplace, more than 40 ceiling fan models now carry the ENERGY STAR label. ENERGY STAR has been working closely with its partners and third-party laboratories to ensure that qualified product reach the shelves in time for peak summer sales. Join us at the ENERGY STAR Partner and Industry Meeting following Dallas Market to learn more.....

Who: ENERGY STAR ceiling fan and lighting partners. Retailers, utilities, and other interested parties.

When: Monday, June 24, 2002.
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Refreshments provided by Hunter Fan Company.

Where: World Trade Center, Dallas, Texas
Twelfth Floor, Room 12014A
2100 Stemmons Freeway
Dallas, TX 75207

Why: With the introduction of a new ENERGY STAR specification comes questions, concerns, and needed clarifications. This meeting provides an opportunity for partners to ask these questions, voice opinions, and become acquainted with ENERGY STAR Representatives as well as other players in the ceiling fan industry. Discussions will include: program successes, Tier I and Tier II specifications, energy efficient lighting, testing clarifications, and marketing opportunities.
